

English Protected Characteristics Coverage Map

Protected Characteristic	EYFS	Key Stage One	Key Stage Two
Disability	Picture News stimulus for speaking and listening to others and justifying our own opinions.	Stephen Hawking and his contributions to the world we live in: speaking and listening.	Michael Morpurgo: Flamingo Boy: work of Van Gogh. Wonder: novel focus on disability and behaviour towards someone with a disability.
Gender Reassignment	Actors / Actresses playing different roles. Marvellous Me: What makes me, me?		Shakespeare Week: Males / Female roles. Billy Elliot: challenging stereotype and pre judice.
Marriage Civil Partnership	Let's Celebrate: stories shared about weddings and families in different cultures.	How can our families look different? Shared experience and development of communication.	Debate: USA laws on marriage in varied states. Marriages in varied cultures and opinion on each of these: drama work.
Pregnancy Maternity	Marvellous Me	Beginning to discuss babies and pregnancy to understand where we all came from.	Life Cycles Debate on religious views of pregnancy and abortion.
Race	Story time: do we all look the same?	Mary Seacole: female, black woman and the pre judice she faced.	Nelson Mandela: the long walk to freedom: biography writing.
Religion / Belief	Theme sessions: Diwali Chinese New Year Hannukah	Drama, poetry and speaking and listening through Wakefield RE syllabus.	Slavery trade: from slave ship to freedom road: the treatment of individuals as slaves and opinion of others. Contrast to modern day slavery.
Sexual Orientation		Do all families look like mine? Speaking and listening.	Billy Elliot: assumptions about sexual orientation through choice of occupation / passion. Careers week.
Gender	Careers week communication and discussion. Mark Making.	Florence Nightingale; Helen Sharman (first woman to visit space)	Billy Elliot: assumptions about sexual orientation through choice of occupation / passion.

English Protected Characteristics Coverage Map

Age	Marvellous me: comparing and contrasting between self and characters from our favourite books and siblings / family.	Queen Victoria: the youngest queen: speaking and listening.	Speaking and listening: the age of working during Victorian Era. The Mining Strike of 1984 balanced argument and newspaper work.
-----	--	---	--